

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Are you getting the hang of it?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's backgrounds in a wider variety of communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about manners and customs.
- I can talk about life experiences.
- I can explain my opinion.

Ask your partner:

- If you had to live abroad, what would you miss most from home? Why?
- How long do you usually have for lunch every day?

Let's Explore!

Jose is trying to adjust to the North American work-life balance.

* "Work-life balance" is the amount of time you spend at work compared to the time you spend on leisure.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: So, Jose, how is everything?

Jose: Everything's good, Vanessa. It's been a very busy first week, but I'm getting the hang of it. I'm looking forward to the weekend, though.

Vanessa: I'm sure you are. Are you happy with your accommodation? Does it live up to your expectations?

Jose: Yes, it's OK. It's not cheap, but it's very practical. I'm sharing a house with 3 other students. It's not very common to do that in Colombia, but here people do it a lot. I'm happy because I have enough personal space. I don't really see my roommates, so the house is very quiet. I miss my home, though.

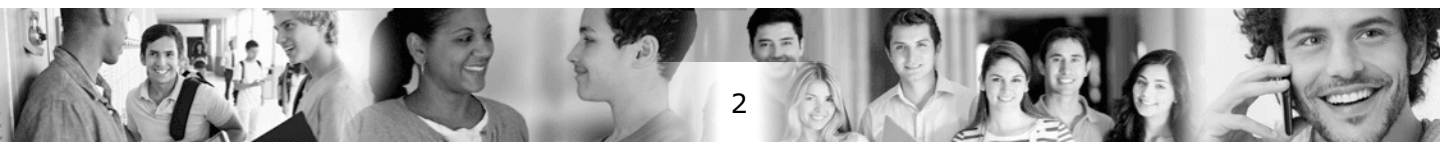

Vanessa: Why's that?

Jose: Life is more communal back home. We spend a lot of time with family. For example, lunch is the most important meal of the day. It is not uncommon to spend two hours away from work just to have lunch at home and spend time with your loved ones. It feels like people lead isolated lives here.

Vanessa: Wow. I guess that's a big change for you, then. We basically do away with having a lunch break altogether during the week here. People don't have time for it. They always find an excuse not to have lunch. Fortunately, we can fall back on our own meals at the restaurant!

Jose: That's true. Lunch is not something I like to miss!

Vanessa: Speaking of which, let's see what Chef Bruce has in store for us!

Let's Practice!

What's common in Colombia?

Instructions: Proofread the sentences. Circle the two incorrect words in each sentence. Write the sentences with the correct words below. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. It's not very comun to do that in Colombia, but here people do these a lot.

2. Life is most communal back home. We spending a lot of time with family.

3. It feel like people leads isolated lives here.

4. For example, of Colombia, lunch is the more important meal of the day.

5. In America, we basic do away with have a lunch lunch break altogether during the week.

Let's Practice!

Jose talks about how things are going at work!

Instructions: Read the sentences. Select the correct answer. Read them aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. I'm getting the _____.
hang of it
hanging of it
hangs of it | 4. We can _____ our own meals at the restaurant!
falling back on fall back on falls back on |
| 2. _____ the weekend.
I'm looking forward to
I'm looking forward to
I'm looks forward to | 5. Does your accommodation _____ your expectations?
living up to lives up to live up to |
| 3. We _____ lunch altogether during the week here.
do away with does away with
do aways with | |

Extension Activity

What are the differences between the two countries?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write about the differences in culture between your country and a country you know well. You may have to do research on one.
- Find at least five differences and give your opinion on them.
- Explain your opinion using sentences that show the use of "not".
- Present the differences to your class.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write about manners and customs.

☐
☐

I give my opinion on the manners and customs.

☐
☐

I explain my opinion.

☐
☐

Target Words

- to do away with (verb): to remove something
e.g. We do away with having a lunch break during the week.
- to fall back on (verb): to use in times of need
e.g. Fortunately, we can fall back on our own meals at the restaurant.
- to live up to (verb): to fulfill expectations
e.g. Does your accommodation live up to your expectations?
- to look forward to (verb): to eagerly anticipate something
e.g. I'm looking forward to the weekend.
- personal space (noun): the space surrounding a person
e.g. I have enough personal space in my house.
- communal (adjective): common use, shared by all members of a community
e.g. Our house has one communal bathroom among three roommates.
- isolated (adjective): far away from other things, places or people
e.g. As a foreigner, I feel isolated living in Japan.

Learning Points

Inseparable Phrasal Verbs

Phrasal verbs consist of a verb and one or more prepositions. They are common, especially in informal spoken English. The meaning of phrasal verbs is often completely different from the meaning of the verb alone.

Separable phrasal verbs consist of two parts. They always require an object.

Inseparable phrasal verbs are very common. The verb must be directly followed by its preposition or adverb. Otherwise, the meaning of the phrasal verb will be incorrect. Some inseparable phrasal verbs never use an object.

Examples:

- get up = get out of bed
I get up at seven o'clock every morning.
- take off = leave the ground
The plane took off on time.
- look out = beware! be careful!
Look out! That car is going to hit you!

You can use the following inseparable phrasal verbs to describe life experiences.

Phrasal Verb	Meaning
to do away with	to remove something
to fall back on	to use in times of difficulty
to live up to	to fulfill expectations
to look forward to	to eagerly anticipate something

Examples:

- Does it live up to your standards?
- We basically do away with lunch altogether during the week here.
- Fortunately, we can fall back on our own meals at the restaurant!

Learning Points

The Position of Not

In English, the adverb not usually goes after the auxiliary verb or “be” to form the negative.

You can use the adverb not in other positions in some cases.

Usually, we find the adverb not in conjunction with an auxiliary verb or “be” in a negative sentence.

Example:

It's not cheap, but it's very practical.

Lunch is not something I like to miss!

I don't really see my roommates = I do not really see my roommates.

When you use the long form instead of the contraction, you emphasize the negation of the verb.

You also find not before a verb in the Infinitive.

Example:

People always find an excuse not to have lunch at work.

